

Biography

David Clark

David Clark is a Vice President in the Strategic and International Accounts Group with Euler Hermes ACI. Within the Group, David works primarily with multi-national clients involved in a wide range of industry sectors, including high tech, mechanical equipment and commodities. Prior to joining Euler Hermes ACI, he spent 10 years with Maryland National Bank (now Bank of America).

David has been involved with FCIB for many years and serves as a member of the FCIB Advisory Council.