

CICP Good Standing Requirements

To keep in good standing, Certified International Credit Professionals must fulfill the following requirements:

- ❖ Earn 3 PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT POINTS every year
- ❖ Keep track of individual Professional Development points
- ❖ Pay the annual renewal fee - $50

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT POINTS

Professional Development (CICP points) can be earned for:

- ❖ FCIB Events
 - FCIB Annual Global Conference – 2 points
 - FCIB I.C.E. Conference – 2 points
 - FCIB European Conference & Workshop– 2 points
 - FCIB European Workshop-1 point
 - FCIB Working Seminar – 2 points
 - FCIB International Conferences – 2 points
 - FCIB Round Table – 1 point
 - FCIB Industry Group Meeting – 1 point
 - FCIB Teleconferences – ½ point
 - FCIB-MSU Foreign Exchange Management Online Course – 2 points
 - FCIB International Business Day – 1 ½ points
- ❖ NACM Events
 - International Sessions at Credit Congress – ½ point
 - NACM Teleconferences on International topics – ½ point
 - Local NACM affiliate international meetings – 1 point
- ❖ Local Events
 - Local organizations' workshops and conferences in International business, finance, credit and management. You must submit a verification of your attendance and a copy of the program – 1 point (subject to FCIB's approval)
 - U.S. Commercial Service Webinars – ½ point
- ❖ Participation
 - Annual FCIB Membership – 2 points per year
 - Publishing articles on subjects related to international business credit and trade finance – 2 points per article
 - Serving as a speaker, moderator, instructor or panelist of an educational offering in the field of international business credit and trade finance – 2 points per engagement